

Rolfontein Nature Reserve Soccer teams go for gold!

VANDERKLOOF — The 23rd of November this year was the battle of the fittest on a dusty soccer field in the Northern Cape, town of Keurtjieskloof. A soccer match dubbed “The Rolfontein Cup” was played between EPWP project workers from the Rolfontein Nature Reserve. Some of the dignitaries that attended this auspicious event included the implementer of the project, Anix Consulting’s, CEO — Rhiyaan Cupido and Ward Councillor Oliphant. In the councillors address to the crowd, he commended Anix Consulting’s management for their work ethic and management of the project.

It was indeed a day of fun and festivities for both teams who received their new soccer gear proudly sponsored by DEA and Anix Consulting. This initiative speaks to Anix Consulting’s approach of inclusivity and holistic engagement with their colleagues on the project. Mr Cupido was quoted as saying “the addressing of social ills through sport is an important component of the overall training process”.

The jubilant Petrusville team took the lead with 5 – 1 and walked away with the 1st Rol-

Mense en boeke

DE AAR — Die oggend van 4 Desember, skakel een van De Aar se boekmense in na Radio Sonder Grense om ’n boek aan te bied wat deur ds GS Moller geskryf is met die titel Bybel en Bybelland. Ds Moller was ’n dosent aan die Hugenote Kollege op Wellington. Die boek is ’n kort inleiding tot Bybelstudie en is in 1964 deur CSV Uitgewers in Kaapstad uitgegee. Nie lank nie of ’n oudstudent van die kollege skakel en daarna ’n familielid, Charlene Bergh. Dit is egter laat in die nag en daar word ooreengekom dat die gesprek later op ’n meer gepaste tyd voorgesit sal word. Na Sondagoggend se kerkdiens, word daar toe lekker verder gesels. Charlene het eers gedink dat dit ds Gawie Moller (bynaam Tappies) was, maar toe sy die voorletters hoor, sê sy dat dit ds Gielie Moller, ’n neef van eersgenoemde was.

Die boek was ds Gawie se persoonlike boek, en daar is aantekeninge in ’n baie fyn skrif. Daar is ook ’n koevert in met sy adres en ’n uitnodiging na die verwelkoming van die nuwe rektor, professor PR van Dyk en sy vrou in die kerkzaal van Wellington-Oos op Woensdagaand 28 Februarie 1979. Die prys van die boek was sewe en vyftig sent. Die boek is nou op pad na die moeder van Charlene, mev CM Bergh wat negentig jaar oud is en baie belangstel in familiedinge. ’n Mens wonder net hoe die boekie op De Aar te lande gekom het? Charlene het terloops gemeld dat sy familie van Piet Bergh is.

Die boek “Bybel en Bybelland”, het met ’n onbekende draai op De Aar beland en is nou op pad na sy nuwe 90-jarige eienaar.

Die Burgemeester van Rensosterberg Munisipaliteit, mnr Zet Kwinana, het in sy roerende toespraak die lede van PCC aangemoedig om vir Christus op te staan en ’n verskil in die gemeenskap te maak. Na ’n emosionele oomblik van stiele, opgedra aan ’n ontslape lid, mnr Kenke Sweni, is CDs oorhandig aan mnr Zamani Saul, mnr Z Kwinana, mev H Potgieter, mev R Ren, familielid van mnr Kenke Sweni.
